

3. Religion reduces our relationship with God to a transaction (Romans 2:17-29).

4. Don't misunderstand God's patience and kindness as indulgence but rather as opportunity (Romans 2:4).

5. Application: God exposes the shortcomings of our religious practice and pedigrees so that we will trust him in a relationship based on his kindness and mercy.