ROMANS 15:14-22
FROM MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS
TO MAXIMUM LIVING
Putting Life Together in a Pull-Apart World #26
May 29, 2016

1. Maximum living means having a vision for going beyond the already known (Romans 15:20; 2 Corinthians 9:6).

2. Maximum living means being firmly established in the basic life-skills of faith (Romans 15:17).

3. Maximum living means seeing God=s grace as a gift that brings responsibility (Romans 15:18).

4. Maximum living frees us from the distraction of pride (Romans 15:18).

5. Maximum living means serving courageously with the full range of God=s resources (Romans 15:19; Matthew 13:58; James 4:2).

6. Maximum living means celebrating the fruit of your labor (Romans 15:19).

7. Application: God calls us to turn from little lives to big lives that will bring others into God=s kingdom through our life-giving witness.
