Putting Life Together In A Pull-Apart World #21

April 24, 2016

1. We shape our lives by either striving for self-satisfaction or living in gratitude for God's grace (Romans 12:1; Genesis 32:22-32).
2. In gratitude for grace, we die to our own agendas and live for God's adventure (Romans 12:1; Leviticus 3; Leviticus 7:11-21; Luke 9:21-27; 2 Corinthians 12:7).
3. We escape the lure and pressure to conform to the world's ways by the transforming power of God's Spirit working through God's Word (Romans 12:2; 2 Corinthians 3:17, 18).
4. Application: The value in being a "living sacrifice" is not in what we give away; but in what we become through the process.
