

JEREMIAH 29:1-14
WELCOME TO BORDERLAND
Thriving on the Borderland #1
April 12, 2015

1. The times they have a'changed! (Jeremiah 29:1, 2).
 - a. Our model for cultural-engagement has been living in the Promised Land.
 - b. Our new model for cultural-engagement is living in exile.

2. We are called to follow the path of the incarnation and the early church (Jeremiah 29:4-7; Philippians 2:5-11).

a. Key terms: Attractional [DEFINITION COMING FROM DOUG ON Tuesday]

b. Missional [DEFINITION COMING FROM DOUG ON Tuesday]

3. We find strength and hope by trusting that God is in control (Jeremiah 29:8-14; 27:1-11).

4. Application: Our perspective on life changes radically when we embrace God's call to live on the border between the lost world and the Coming Kingdom of God.
