SERMON NOTES

MAY 2, 2021

1. Those with realistic expectations take seriously God's assessment of the human condition.
(1 Corinthians 3:1-4; Romans 3:23; Jeremiah 17:9; John 2:23-25)
2. Those with realistic expectations appreciate the priceless value of each believer as the temple of the Holy Spirit.
(1 Corinthians 3:16)
3. Those with realistic expectations demonstrate a mature and forgiving spirit toward themselves and others for the disappointments and failures that are part of life in community (1 Corinthians 13:1-8; Ephesians 4:30-32).
4. Application: Those who create life-giving community keep their eyes open to the reality of human nature and their hearts open to showing Jesus' unwavering love.
