

...NOW WHAT?

HOW THE RESURRECTION CHANGES EVERYTHING

"The New You"
Jeff Wagner

Colossians 3:1-17

The new _____ made possible through the resurrection of Jesus must be made _____.

Living as "The New You" means new _____ and _____.

Living as "The New You" is daily _____ and releasing _____, it is learning to live the life of _____ here on earth.

"For you died..."

Put to death
sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires, greed, idolatry anger, rage, malice, slander filthy language, lying

Colossians 3:5-9

"...you have been raised with Christ"

Put on the new self clothe yourself with compassion,
kindness, humility, gentleness,
patience, forgive as the Lord
forgave you, put on love

Colossians 3:12-13

Third Sunday of Easter

The organ is under repair this weekend, but we look forward to it being back in worship next Sunday!

New hair and new clothes can quickly transform your physical appearance. If you experience this type of makeover, you may gain new confidence in yourself. You view your new image reflected in the mirror, and you remember your appearance from before. You marvel in your new identity, “the new you.”

We recently celebrated the resurrection of Jesus Christ, which ushered in an entirely new identity for his followers. Since he bore the cross and beat the grave, we have been set free from sin and can now rejoice in our new identity as a child of God. Pastor Jeff will explain how our new identity changes how we see God, ourselves and others. This new identity also fuels our priorities and directs our obedience. We call out to God and ask him to:

*Show me who You are and fill me with Your heart
And lead me in Your love to those around me.*

Prelude: O the Deep, Deep Love of Jesus | arr. A. J. Snyder
