1. The saints are _____ with Christ, and their lives _____ us to him.

2. We don't _____ the saints; we _____ the Savior they followed.

WELCOME

We're so glad you're here!

Today we observe All Saints Sunday, remembering and honoring our loved ones who have gone onto glory this past year. We worship in gratitude to Jesus, whose sacrifice offers us eternal hope.

Glory to our God, who gave us life beyond the grave,
Holy, holy is the Lord.

Pastor Mike will preach about the transfiguration, where disciples saw Moses and Elijah conversing with a heavenly-transformed Jesus. In the same way, the Saints Triumphant are gathered around our glorious Savior.

All death can do to the believer is deliver them to Jesus.
- John MacArthur

This morning, let us join with the angels and the saints to sing the song of ages to the Lamb. Like those before us, may we faithfully run the race so we may one day stand face to face with our resurrected Lord.
